Amoy Canning was first founded in Amoy (Xiamen), China in 1908 to produce Amoy Soya Sauce. In 1951, we set up our first Southeast Asian factory in Singapore under Amoy Canning Corporation (Singapore) Limited. Today, we distribute and exports food products such as complete cooking kit, canned foods, canned vegetarian's foods, canned drinks, Asian sauces, soya sauce under our trademarks AMOCAN, CIXIN and DELITE.

Amocan concentrates on what it does best - sharing Singapore's food heritage. Working closely with local chefs, it unravels the mystery ingredients and cooking methods behind closely guarded kitchen secrets, and shares this with the world through its canned dishes. With the Amocan range of Singapore dishes, the best flavours and textures of Singapore cuisine can be delivered to your tables. Amocan's exotic range of traditional canned meat and seafood items reflects our home flavors.

It includes many local favourites like Singapore Curry Chicken and Singapore Satay Chicken, Singapore Curry Beef etc. Amocan's trained cooks use time-honoured traditional recipes to prepare the best produce sourced from respected suppliers around the world.
