

Call for Proposals for Joint R&D and Innovation Projects Between Singapore and Zhejiang Companies

Call Timeline

Call Opens	16 September 2026
Submission Deadline	9 October 2026
Announcement of Approved Projects	Tentatively April 2027

Enterprise Singapore (“EnterpriseSG”) and the Zhejiang Provincial Department of Science and Technology (“ZSTD”) have announced the call for proposals for joint R&D and innovation projects between Singapore and Zhejiang. This joint call aims to facilitate deeper cross-border collaboration between Singapore and Zhejiang enterprises on science, technology and innovation, and assist enterprises in their overseas ventures through co-development with foreign partners.

Interested companies from Singapore and Zhejiang are invited to submit their joint project proposals in the research and development of innovative products and applications with a strong market potential.

1. Project Scope

The call for proposals is open to all technological and application areas, such as:

- Life Sciences
- Smart Cities
- Green Technology
- Information Technology
- New Materials
- Fintech
- Digital Economy

2. Partnership and Project Requirements

The project partners must meet the following requirements:

- The consortium must involve at least one company from Singapore and one company from Zhejiang, independent from each other.

- Academic/research entities and additional companies are welcomed as additional cooperation partners according to each country's funding regulations.
- Academic/research entities and/or companies from other countries may also participate. However, EnterpriseSG and ZSTD will not fund these partners in this call.

The project proposals have to comply with the following guidelines:

- The project should focus on the development of new products, services or processes of industrial application leading to commercialisation in the domestic and/or global markets.
- The project should have an obvious advantage and differentiated value proposition resulting from the cooperation between participants from the two countries (e.g. increased knowledge base, commercial leads, access to R&D infrastructure, new fields of application, etc.).
- The project should demonstrate a balanced technological contribution between the partners from both countries. Each partner should contribute no more than 70% of total project contribution, in terms of total project budget and person months.
- The project partners should agree in advance on the IP rights and on the commercialisation strategy of the product and process.

Any partners whose joint R&D project is consistent with the aforesaid criteria can apply to the current call for proposals in accordance with the national laws, rules, regulations and procedures in effect.

3. Eligibility Criteria

3.1 For Zhejiang-based Companies

Projects will be funded to Zhejiang counterpart through Zhejiang Provincial Department of Science and Technology. The amount will be up to 1.5M RMB per project.

The Zhejiang partner must meet the following eligibility criteria:

- a) R&D performing companies registered and operating in Zhejiang, China

Interested Zhejiang-based companies should refer to ZSTD's notice on its website (<https://kjt.zj.gov.cn/>) for more information regarding eligibility criteria.

3.2 For Singapore Companies

The Singapore partner must meet the following criteria to apply:

- a) Be a business entity that is registered and physically present in Singapore
- b) $\geq 30\%$ local equity held directly or indirectly by Singaporean(s) / Singapore PR(s), determined by the ultimate individual ownership and;
- c) Be financially able to see the project through to completion

Projects will be supported on a reimbursement basis, where successful applicants may receive up to 70% of total qualifying project costs.
