

House of Crab (Holding) Pte Ltd

Ready-to-Eat Crabs

House of Crab is a seafood restaurant company that was established in 2008. It is also the first and only seafood restaurant in Singapore to make ready-to-eat crabs available through their crab-dispensing vending machines. Its ready-to-eat crabs are pre-cooked in Singapore and sealed through an innovative vacuum-packaging process that keeps all the flavours intact. It is easy to serve and eat — simply reheat or microwave the frozen crab for 7 to 10 minutes and you will be able to enjoy perfectly-executed Singapore-style crabs.

Its ready-to-eat crabs:

- are 99% restaurant standard
- are lab-tested and certified
- do not contain preservatives
- packed whole
- have a shelf life of 1 year
- available in 3 flavours: Chilli, Black Pepper & Salted Egg
