

Golden Bridge Foods Manufacturing Pte Ltd

Singapore's Leading Processed Meat Manufacturer

Golden Bridge started off as a small scale manufacturer, producing only traditional Chinese Waxed meats and specialized in Chinese waxed sausages for the local market. In an effort for business expansion and modernization, Golden Bridge Foods Manufacturing Pte Ltd was established in 1993.

Golden Bridge Food's strength lies in its core belief of innovation and quality deliverance. It spearheaded the revolution of the local SMEs, and helped raised the standards of Singapore's foods manufacturing industry. The company is proud to have achieved industry gold standards and gained recognition within Singapore and in the region

It is Singapore's first meat processing plant accredited ISO 9001, FSSC 22000 and HACCP certification, and the plant is also graded "A" by SFA (Former AVA) for consecutively 9 years.

And since its' humble beginnings, Golden Bridge Foods has expanded its' product offerings, services and business footprint beyond Singapore into S.E.A. region. To-date, Golden Bridge a regionally recognized leading manufacturer of processed meat and seafood products, including Chinese Waxed Sausages, Taiwanese-Styled Sausages, European-Styled Hams & Cold Cuts, European-Styled Sausages, and Canned Processed Meats. Some of its best-selling products are Luncheon Meat, Western sausages and Red Wine Chinese Sausages.

Golden Bridge Foods takes pride in constant innovation of its production methods with up-to-date technology and research and development activities. Even starting from the sourcing process, all the raw materials ranging from the meat and spices are meticulously sourced from around the world to deliver the highest taste quality. The introduction of newer production methodology also ensures the end product retains its maximum taste and quality by monitoring and regulating its moisture and tenderness level.
