

Tungsan Food Industries Pte Ltd

True taste of Southeast Asian cuisine

Since 1973, Tungsan Food Industries has been successfully building lasting relationships with our customers. This is made possible through our high quality products, R&D and manufacturing capabilities, comprehensive wholesale and distribution infrastructure, well stocked retail branches, practical culinary solutions and, most importantly, our commitment to providing an attentive service to our customers. Embracing Singapore's entrepreneurial spirit, we are on the constant look out for opportunities to innovate and adapt our products, with the aim of offering quality pastes, sauces and marinades for the enjoyment of our customers worldwide. We welcome you to find out more about us and our brands Yi Pin Tang and Straits Story. Please join us in our journey of sharing the true taste of Southeast Asian cuisine with the world.

Tungsan began as a food manufacturer offering chilli products, and was formally incorporated as Tungsan Food industries Pte Ltd in 1990. Today, our business extends beyond manufacturing to include the wholesale, trading and retail of more than 100 types of pastes, sauces and seasoning condiments.

As part of our brand vision to share the true taste of Southeast Asian cuisine with our customers worldwide, Tungsan brands seek to exceed the expectations of diverse customers. All products under our brands are subjected to stringent production standards, quality control and preparation with ingredients of premium quality.

Tungsan offers a wide range of quality pastes, sauces and marinades, through R&D and manufacturing capabilities, comprehensive wholesale and distribution infrastructure and well-stocked branches. Tungsan name is also our house brand.

We are involved not only in the manufacture and retail of products under the Tungsan house brand, but we also procure and repack more than 100 types of dried foodstuffs. This makes it convenient for our customers to obtain everything they need at our comprehensive one-stop retail branches. In addition, we also offer delivery services for bulk orders to address our customers logistical needs.

The company has been awarded Grade A by the Singapore Food Agency (SFA) for achieving Food Safety Excellence. Based on the Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Point (HACCP) food safety system, Tungsan is assessed and graded by SFA annually.
